

A portrait of Kevin Duffy, a man with a beard and short hair, wearing a dark suit jacket over a light blue checkered shirt. The background is a blurred indoor setting.

KEVIN DUFFY

Kevin Duffy, Centre Director at centre:mk

Kevin Duffy began his role as Centre Director at centre:mk Milton Keynes in 2015, following success working within Trinity Leeds, Cabot Circus and Westfield. His first centre management role was as part of a team launching Meadowhall, specifically the Food Court, and then quickly moved in to managing his own centres, culminating in developing some of the best-known destinations across 10 cities in the UK and Ireland.

Whilst his background has been focused on opening new developments and refurbishing and extending existing centres, his current role has been evolving centre:mk into a UK top 10 retail destination.

Kevin has a particular passion for ESG and the community surrounding the centre he oversees is an integral part of that commitment, resulting in achieving a number of highly enviable ESG accreditations to add to his trove of awards.