

A portrait of Mike Pearce, a man with grey hair, smiling, wearing a white shirt and light-colored trousers. The name 'MIKE PEARCE' is overlaid in large, white, outlined, sans-serif capital letters.

MIKE PEARCE

Director of Security and Resilience at Landsec

Mike Pearce is the Director of Security and Resilience for Landsec the largest commercial property development and investment company in the UK. He is a significant commercial influencer in the risk, protection and crisis management sphere.

Mike has led a transformative security and Resilience programme at Landsec and is a recognised Industry leading physical security expert. His unique approach to reducing crime has attracted numerous National awards.

Mike is a Non-Executive Director of the Safer Business Network . His innovative approach to driving down retail theft and giving retailers access to personal safety support has been nominated for numerous National awards

Mike, as Co-Chair Of the Counter Terrorism Business Information Exchange currently advises UK Government and National Counter Terrorism Policing on key policy issues and informs the detail around the Martyn's Law and other key legislation

The former UK lead for Crowded Places at the National Counter Terrorism Security Office, London, he held responsibility for the national development and delivery of counter terrorism protective security advice across UK industry. Mike also served as the principal security advisor to the UK Parliament.

Mike holds a Graduateship in Counter Terrorism Management and is a member of the Business Continuity Institute.